RSL AUCTIONS: CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. RSL Auctions acts as an agent for the seller. The contract for the sale of the property is between the seller and the buyer. No statements made within this catalog or made by a representative of or employee of RSL Auctions shall be deemed to be a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability with respect to the property's age, condition, size, quality, variety, importance, provenance, or historical relevance. All property is sold "as is".

2. All sales are final.

3. Buyers are responsible for satisfying themselves concerning the condition of the property.

4. The auctioneer will be solely responsible for determining the bidding increments.

5. The auctioneer will be the final judge in deciding which bidder has won an item. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer at his discretion, shall decide whether to reopen bidding or not.

6. LiveAuctioneer's Bids: in order to bid through LiveAuctioneers, you must first register on LiveAuctioneer's website. RSL Auctions reserves the right, in our sole discretion, to refuse your registration or participation in the auction or to revoke your permission to participate before, during or after the sale.

6A: Bidspirit Bids - in order to bid through Bidspirit.com you must first register on the Bidspirit.com website. RSL Auctions reserves the right, in our sole discretion, to refuse your registration or participation in the auction or to revoke your permission to participate before, during or after the sale.

7. Absentee Bids: If you are unable to attend the actual sale, RSL Auctions are authorized to execute bids on your behalf. Complete an Absentee Bid Form and return to RSL Auctions BEFORE the absentee bid deadline. We cannot accept "Buy" bids. In the event that two identical bids are received, the first bid form received by RSL Auctions will have preference.

8. Phone Bids: Phone bids will also be accepted. To qualify for a phone line the same procedure of authorization required for an absentee bid is required. A backup bid in the event a party cannot be reached by phone is not required, but strongly recommended. There are a limited number of phone lines available. In the event that there are more requests than lines available, preference will go to the highest bidding parties. In the event, whether human or technical, that a phone call is not made, disconnected or the bidder cannot be reached at the number left, the backup bid will be executed. RSL Auctions cannot guarantee that phone bids will be executed.

9. Submit all questions regarding upcoming auction items at least 48 hours prior to the date of auction. We will make every effort to answer all submitted questions in a timely manner. However, we cannot guarantee that questions submitted within 48 hours of the auction date will be answered prior to the auction.

10. The buyer is required to pay New Jersey sales tax 7% unless exemption is allowed under the laws regulating such tax. Dealers must present a valid tax ID certificate in order to qualify for exemption.

11. Payment may be made by cash, personal check or credit card. A 23.5% buyer's premium will be added to all successful bids. A 3.5% discount will be applied for payment made by cash or personal check making the buyer's premium 20% if paid within 15 days. Discount only applied to payment made within this time frame. An additional 5% will be added to bids made through liveauctioneers.com. An additional 4% will be added to all bids made through Bidspirit.com. RSL Auctions reserve the right to hold all merchandise paid by check until payment has been cleared by the bank. This may take up to one month.

12. All accounts are to be settled within 15 days of the end of the sale.

13. There will be a $50 charge added to all wire transfers.

14. In the event property is not paid for in full, RSL Auctions may pursue one or more of the following rights or remedies. A) charge interest at 2% per month of the unpaid balance. B) hold the defaulting buyer liable for the total amount due and commence legal proceedings for its recovery together with interest, legal fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. C) cancel the sale D) resell the property E) pay the seller the amount up to the net proceeds payable in respect to the amount bid by the default buyer minus one bid. F) or to take such other action as we deem necessary or appropriate.

15. Shipping may be arranged through RSL Auctions. A shipping fee of $20 per lot, $80 per 5 lots or $150 per 10 lots is charged plus the incurred postage and insurance. International and large items will incur additional costs. Shipped items may take up to 45 days to be delivered. Due to Coronavirus, we strongly recommended that all International Packages be shipped via DHL Worldwide Express. We will gladly obtain a shipping quote for customers.

However, if you prefer to ship via the US Postal Service or any other carrier, we will make the arrangements. RSL Auction Company will not guarantee timely delivery or be financially responsible for those shipments.

Additional Shipping and Handling charges for all packages are listed above.

16. RSL Auctions has the capability to ship to international bidders. By law, RSL Auctions cannot, and will not, declare lesser values for any international purchases and all shipments will include the invoice with purchase totals including the buyer's premium and shipping cost. All international bidders are responsible for knowing their country's laws on importing items and for paying all customs and duties on the items.

17. RSL Auctions are not responsible for any typographical errors or omissions in this catalog or price key. Photographs in this catalog are of the actual objects being sold but are not shown to scale.

18. RSL Auctions reserve the right to refuse admission, participation in or request the departure of any person/persons.

19. RSL Auctions reserves the right to withdraw any property before, during and after the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal.

20. In no event will our liability to a purchaser exceed the purchase price actually paid. RSL Auctions will not be responsible for any errors or failures to execute bids placed online or for any errors or omissions in connection therewith including, without limitation, errors or failures caused by (i) a loss of connection to the internet or the LiveAuctioneers Online Platform software by either RSL Auctions or the client; (ii) a breakdown or problem with RSL Auctions or LiveAuctioneers' Online Platform software; or (iii) a breakdown or problem with a client's internet connection, mobile network or computer.

21. RSL Auction's content on LiveAuctioneers' Online Platform ("Web Site" or "Platform") is published and maintained by LiveAuctioneers. Lot 19
Horse and Jockey

Merriam Mfg. Co.
Durham, CT - 1875 - 7" L
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $800 - $1000

This is a very superior example that retains lustrous colorful paint.

Lot 20
Articulated Acrobat on Horseback

Very Early Production Merriam Mfg. Co.
Durham, CT - 1875 - 4.75" L
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $1500 - $2000

We have never before seen this miniature version of this tin toy.

Lot 21
Julien Carriage

Hull & Stafford
Clinton, CT - 1860 - 7.5" L
Very Fine Condition
Estimate: $550 - $750

Hull & Stafford, along with Francis, Field & Francis of Philadelphia are among the earliest known American toy makers. These early toys can often be recognized by their thick and brightly painted wheels.

Lot 22
Conestoga Wagon

Francis, Field & Francis
Philadelphia, PA - 1850 - 8.5" L
Fine Original Condition
Estimate: $800 - $1000

Francis, Field & Francis is the oldest toymaker in the United States. The company began operations in 1831.

Lot 23
Triple Platform Toy

Altoph Bergmann Company
New York City - 1880 - 9" L
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $2000 - $3000

This toy is in exceptional condition given its size and intricacy. It is a real showstopper!

Lot 24
Articulated Buffalo Bill Platform Toy

James Fallows Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1883 - 9.5" L
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $3000 - $4000

This is an exceptional, all original, example of this toy. Here we find "Buffalo Bill" hunting down a pair of running buffalo.

Lot 25
Galloping Equestrians

Probably by Merriam Mfg. Co.
Durham, CT - 1880 - 8.5" L
Very Fine Condition
Estimate: $2000 - $3000

This is a very scarce kinetic American tin toy depicting two young men out for an energetic ride. To our knowledge, only 3 or 4 examples of this rare toy exist. Horses with some restoration.

Lot 26
“Big Top Peanuts”
Circus Elephant Platform Toy

George Brown Company
 Forestville, CT - 1880 - 9” L
 Very Fine Condition
 Estimate: $1200 - $1500

We have not seen this toy before. It is significant because it advertises for “Big Top Peanuts”, which references the tent form of the circus.

Lot 27
Shepherdess, Sheep and Her Dog
Rare Oversized Platform Bell Toy

By The James Fallows Company
 Philadelphia, PA - Dated June 5, 1883 - 11.5” L x 5” D
 Excellent Condition
 (Red jacket and face restored)
 Estimate: $2500 - $3500

This is an extremely rare and highly desirable multiple figured platform toy. It depicts a young shepherdess, staff in hand, walking a sheep in the meadow. Her dog accompanies her to round the sheep up, if necessary.

Lot 28
Boy Riding Goat
Platform Toy

James Fallows Company
 Philadelphia, PA - 1880's - 9.5” L
 Pristine Original Condition
 Estimate: $1500 - $2000

This is part of a series of toys produced by The Fallows Company in which a young man sits atop either a horse, dog or goat. The goat version is by far the scarcest of the three.

Lot 29
Small Horse Sulky
George Brown Company
Forestville, CT - 1870's - 7" L
Pristine Condition
Estimate: $350 - $450

Lot 30
Medium Horse Sulky
George Brown Company
Forestville, CT - 1870's - 8.75" L
Bernard Barenholtz Collection
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $600 - $800

Lot 31
Large Sulky with Driver

George Brown Company
Forestville, CT - 1870's - 11.5" L
Bernard Barenholtz Collection
Very Fine Condition
Estimate: $1750 - $2250

This is only one of a few known examples. Originally hailed from the renowned Bernard and Edith Barenholtz Collection assembled in the 1950/60's. A true museum piece.

Lot 32
The "Diligent" Fire Pumper

James Fallows Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1880's - 15" L
Very Fine Condition
(Fireman with restoration)
Estimate: $2500 - $3500

Early American tin fire toys are very scarce. James Fallows produced a series of varying sized steam pumers pulled by horses.

Lot 33
Philadelphia Fire Dept.
Scarce Chief's Wagon

James Fallows Company
 Philadelphia, PA - 1885 - 12" L
 Very Fine Condition
 Estimate: $1750 - $2250

This is quite possibly the only known example of an American Tin Fire Chief vehicle. We know of no others by any early tin maker. Stenciled "PFD", for Philadelphia Fire Department. A working bell can be found under the carriage. The horse and one side of the Chief's face are restored. A great mate for the previous lot.

Lot 34
Hose Reel

Francis, Field & Francis
 Philadelphia, PA - 1850 - 8" L
 Fine Condition
 Estimate: $2500 - $3500

This is perhaps the earliest American tin, Hand Drawn, Hose Reel vehicle that we have ever encountered. It has all the signature paint colors and highlights of Francis, Field & Francis. Most of the vehicle in Very Fine Condition, the shield is in Fair Condition.

Lot 35
Hand Drawn Hook & Ladder

James Fallows Company
 Philadelphia, PA - 1880's - 8.5" L
 Very Fine Condition
 Estimate: $2500 - $3500

This is an extremely rare American tin Hook & Ladder. It is also marked "PFD" to designate Philadelphia Fire Department. In terms of fire apparatus, The Hook & Ladder form is the rarest piece. Very slight restorations to some of the red.

Lot 36
Broadway & 42nd Street Trolley

Early production by Merriam Mfg. Company
 Durham, CT - Circa 1870 - 16" L
 Excellent Plus Condition
 Estimate: $3500 - $4500

This is an attractive large scale horse drawn trolley toy made by the Merriam Mfg. Company. The assembly uses a separate horse on platform that connects underneath the trolley. Basically, the toy is preserved in great condition, however, horse's legs have minor inpaint.

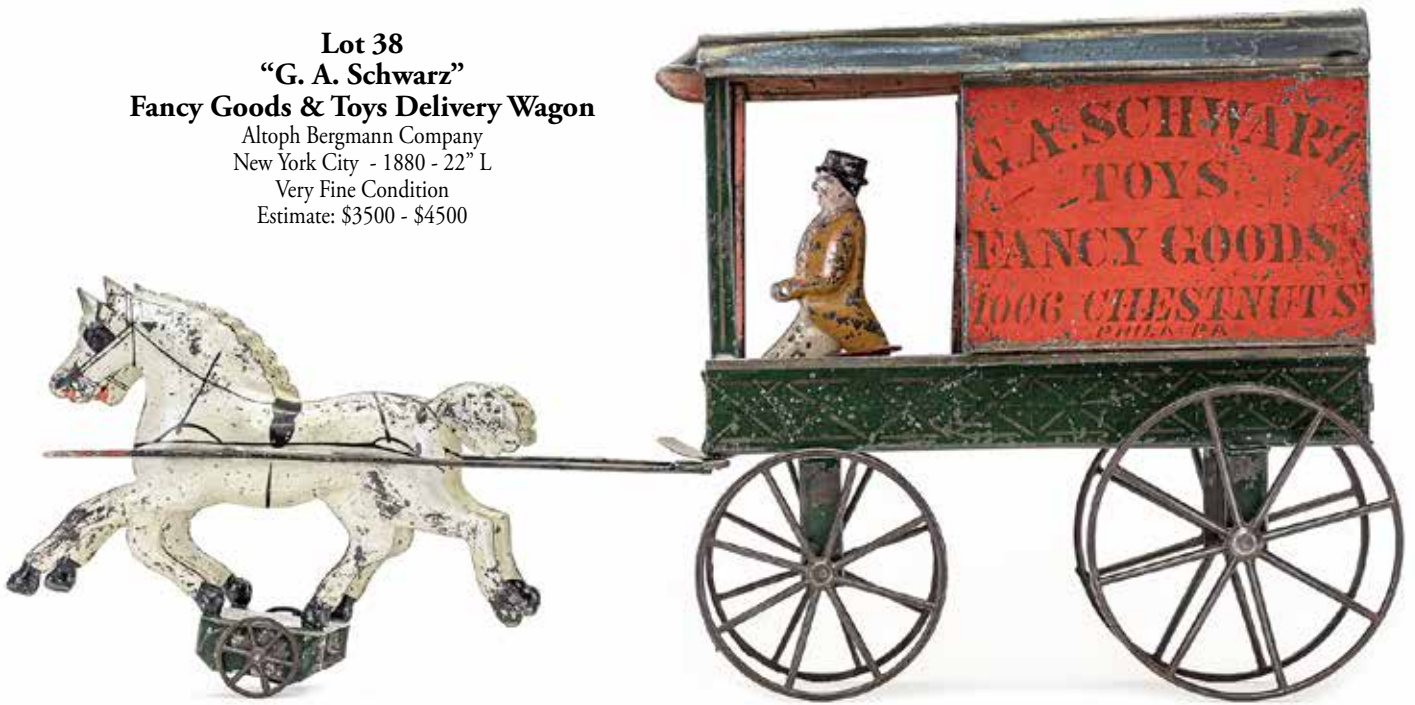

Lot 37
Rare Oversized Tin Landau
with Opening Doors

Made by Merriam Mfg. Company
 Durham, CT - 1870's - 19" L
 Fantastic Professional Restoration
 Estimate: $3500 - $4500

This is one of the largest American tin carriage toys we have ever seen. It measures a whopping 19" long and nearly 5" deep. The toy descended in the family of a worker from the Merriam Company. It remained in Durham, CT until the time of its discovery in the late 1980's. At that time it was found in poor condition. It was professionally restored by Marc Olimpio.

Lot 38
"G. A. Schwarz"
Fancy Goods & Toys Delivery Wagon

Altoph Bergmann Company
New York City - 1880 - 22" L
Very Fine Condition
Estimate: $3500 - $4500

G. A. Schwarz and F. A.O. Schwarz were brothers who emigrated from Europe to establish retail toy outlets in Philadelphia and New York City respectively. This is an extremely rare toy with many unusual features, including side flaps that could be raised and a tailgate that could be lowered. Overall, the toy is very fine condition however, the driver's face is 20% restored.

Lot 39
Early Conestoga Wagon

Made by Hull & Stafford
Clinton, CT - 1860 - 21" L
Very Fine Plus Condition
Estimate: $3500 - $4500

Here we have another oversized and impressive early American tin toy. Made by Hull & Stafford and possibly using horses they acquired from Merriam Mfg. (notice the well defined cloud tails). The painted thick wheels and the hand drawn filigree decoration are emblematic of pre-Civil War production. The horses were reconnected to the hitch years ago and the wear is appropriate.

Pristine Condition
(Beak with some chipping)
Estimate: $3000 - $4000

This colorful and rare bird used to hail from the Edwin Mosler Jr. and Stephen Steckbeck Collections. It is illustrated on page 68 of the Mechanical Bank Book. Dropping coins into his open beak will cause his head to move up and down.

Lot 59
Sentry with Rifle

Germany - 1910
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $2000 - $2500

This is a very scarce bank. There are fewer than ten known examples. Drop a coin in the slot and the Swiss Guard raises his rifle to you. This particular example was made for the English market.

Lot 88
Clown & Globe Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1890's
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $1200 - $1500

This dynamic circus-themed bank delivers two different actions to its delighted viewers. He spins round and round like a whirling dervish and the clown can also spring into a handstand on the globe.

Lot 89
John Bull's Money Box

Made By Sydenham & McOustra
Staffordshire, England - 1909
Very Fine Condition
See Description
Estimate: $5500 - $7500

John Bull was originated as a satirical character by John Arbuthnot in 1712. John Bull is the personification of England, similar to the American "Uncle Sam". These banks are very rare and usually come in very poor condition. This example is much better than most, however, the original John Bull figure is about 40% repainted. Everything else is totally original.

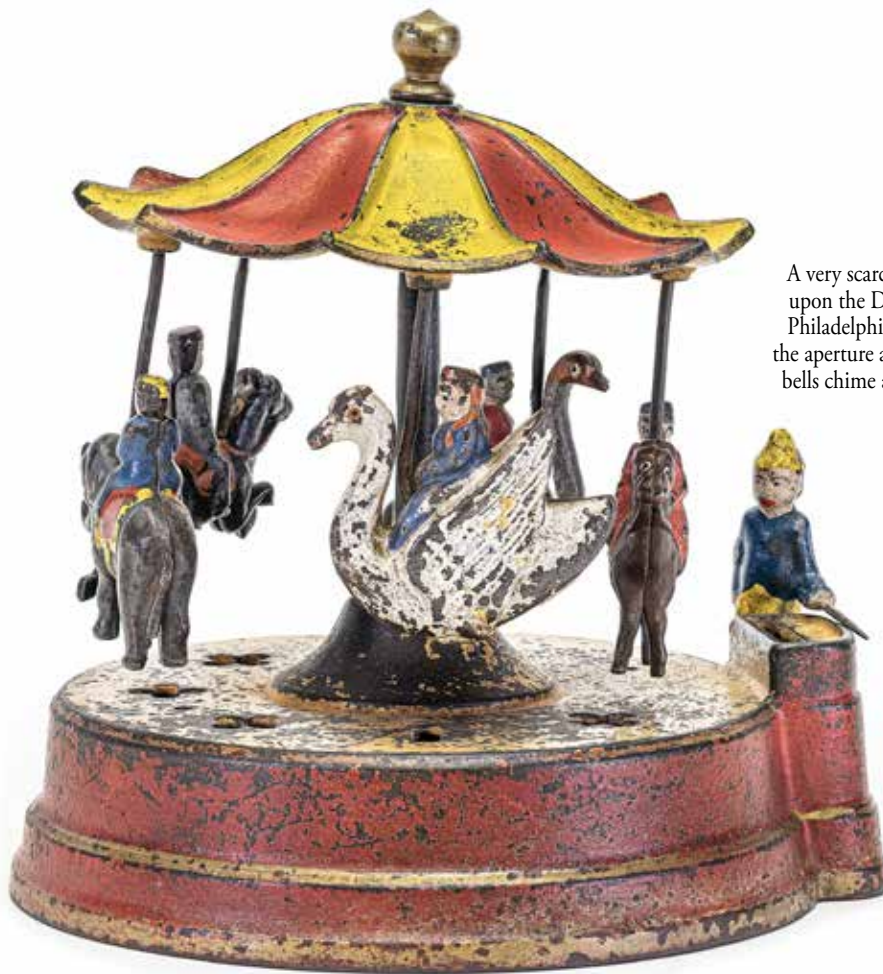

Lot 90
Bull & Bear Bank
Later Second Casting

American - Late 1950's
Pristine Plus Condition
Estimate: $3000 - $4000

These later castings of the Bull & Bear Bank were made by Mark Haber after WWII. This particular example has several casting flaws in the base.

Lot 91
Merry-Go-Round

Kyser & Rex Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1889
Very Good Plus Condition
See Description
Estimate: $7500 - $9500

A very scarce and charming bank. It is probably based upon the Dentzel Carousel that was at Fairmont Park, Philadelphia, in the late 19th Century. Place a coin in the aperture and turn the crank, the carousel goes around, bells chime and your coin is deposited. The ticket taker and the finial are replaced.

Lot 92
Roller Skating Bank

Kyser & Rex Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1880's
Very Fine Overall Condition
Estimate: $9500 - $12,500

In the background, we see the skate rental rack along with a wonderful two-armed Victorian chandelier. Additionally, we find a young man bent over to help a girl put on her skates. We also witness two clumsy boys who have fallen on the floor. But the main visual imagery revolves around the bank's movement. A boy dressed in red and a girl dressed in yellow race to the back of the elliptical track to determine who is faster on their feet. To the viewer, they appear to be evenly matched, however, the referee always turns to his right to award the winner's wreath to the female skater. Meanwhile, the penny, which had been placed in the canopy above the skate rental booth, has now dropped into the bank. A 1/4" hairline crack near the right rear pedestal leg.

Lot 93
Horse Race with Flanged Base

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1870's
Very Fine Condition
(Paper Label Replaced)
Estimate: $3000 - $4000

To operate the bank, pull the mechanism taut and set the horse's feet by the painted star found on the top plate. Dropping coins into the chute causes the spring to release, sending the horses around the track and through the arches.

Lot 94
Magician Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1890's
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $2500 - $3500

In terms of composition, the Magician Bank is a near perfect isosceles triangle. This attribute is what make the bank so visually appealing.

Lot 95
Mason Bank

Shepard Hardware Company
Buffalo, NY - 1887
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $2500 - $3500

Place a coin in the hod and press the lever at the right side of the bank. The Irishman throws your coin into the bank while the Italian laborer raises his trowel.

Lot 96
Artillery Bank - Union Officer

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1892
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $1200 - $1500

Upon its release in 1892, Stevens' painted version of the Artillery Bank became a huge sensation with children and adults alike. Even today, those who operate the bank find its dynamic action hard to resist, playing it over and over.

Lot 97
Panorama Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1870's
Very Fine Plus Condition
Estimate: $3500 - $4500

Push a coin into the roof slot and the pictures in the viewing window advance in sequence.

Lot 98
New Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - Late 1870's
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $1500 - $2000

Pushing the lever leftward causes the brass soldier to move behind the door frame, exposing the coin slot for deposit.

Lot 99
Novelty Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1880's
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $900 - $1200

This represents the rare and desirable version of the Novelty Bank in primary colors.

Lot 100
National Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1875
Very Fine Plus Condition
Estimate: $4000 - $5000

The National Bank extremely scarce. At most there are 25 known examples. Set the door with the teller in view. Place a coin on his tray and press the button, the door spins around depositing it.

Lot 101
Goat, Frog & Old Man
a.k.a. Initiating Bank - 2nd Degree

Mechanical Novelty Works
 New Britain, CT - 1880
 Excellent Condition
 Estimate: $2500 - $3500

Set the goat and man down in place and put a coin on his tray. Raise the goat's tail and he shoots forward depositing the coin to the frog's mouth. Overall excellent condition with very minor inpaint on goat.

Lot 102
Initiating Bank - First Degree

Mechanical Novelty Works
 New Britain, CT - 1880
 Pristine Condition
 Estimate: $9500 - $12,500

This is a very scarce, fragile and highly desirable bank. This example is wonderful condition and all original.

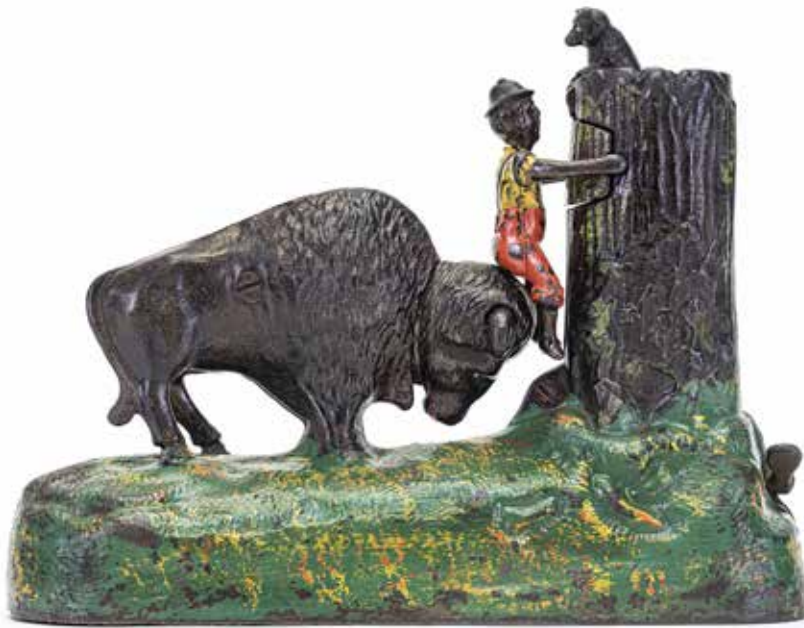

Set the figure and goat in place, put a coin on his tray and raise the goat's tail, the boy shoots forward, depositing the coin into the frog.

Lot 103
Pelican Man Thumbs Nose

Trenton Lock Company
 Trenton, NJ - 1880's
 Excellent Plus Condition
 Estimate: $2000 - $2500

This is a wonderfully painted example with great red highlights.

Lot 104
Butting Buffalo

Kyser & Rex Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1880s
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $3500 - $4500

Racially biased sarcasm is deployed in the Butting Buffalo Bank. After the gold lever is pressed, the buffalo butts the young black boy up the side of the tree, where he comes face-to-face with a raccoon.

Lot 105
Uncle Remus

Kyser & Rex Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1891
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $4000 - $5000

Uncle Remus has gotten into a neighbor's chicken coop and is seen trying to make off with a prize bird for his dinner. In the same moment, the Constable arrives to arrest the chicken thief, but Remus reacts quickly, snapping the coop door shut. Pennies placed in the roof of the building are deposited when you push the chicken's head down. About 25% of the original long segment fence is repainted.

Lot 106
Organ Grinder & Performing Bear

Kyser & Rex Company
Philadelphia, PA - 1890
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $3000 - $4000

The circus is coming to town. Here we see two young boys peeking over a fence at a performer training his bear to dance to music. One of only two clockwork banks to have been produced.

Lot 107
Creedmoor Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1880's
Excellent Plus Condition
Estimate: $900 - $1200

Imagery for this bank is based upon the annual shooting competitions staged by the National Rifle Association (NRA) in upstate New York. Entrants from around the world participated.

Lot 108
William Tell Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1890's
Pristine Plus Condition
Estimate: $1200 - $1500

Place a coin on the rifle and depress Tell's right foot. The coin is shot into the castle, after knocking the apple off his son's head.

Lot 109
Volunteer Bank

John Harper Ltd.
Willenhall, England - 1885
Excellent Condition
Estimate: $1200 - $1500

The Volunteer is an extremely scarce bank.

Lot 110
Grenadier Bank

John Harper Ltd.
Willenhall, England - 1885
Very Fine Plus Condition
Estimate: $1200 - $1500

As with the Volunteer Bank above, Harper's Grenadier Bank is also very rare and desirable.

Lot 111
Octagonal Fort Bank

Unknown Manufacturer
American - 1870's
Very Good Condition
Estimate: $2500 - $3500

Many collectors have conjectured that the "Octagonal Fort" bank takes its inspiration from the renowned battle at Fort Sumter in Charlestown, South Carolina. Place a coin in the cannon and press the activating lever, sending the coin flying into the Octagonal Fort.

Lot 112
U. S. & Spain Bank

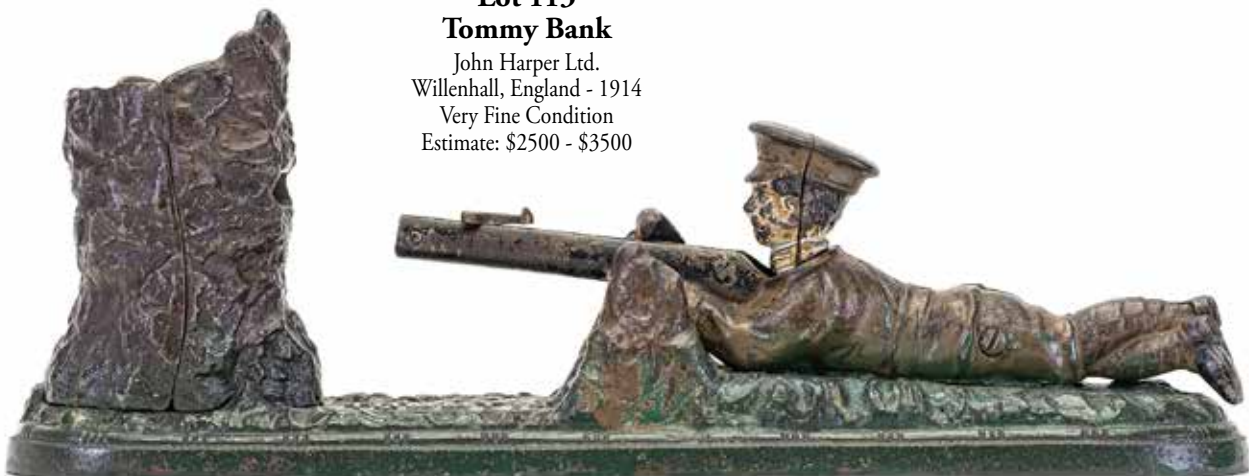

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1898
Excellent Condition
with Original Bullet
Estimate: $3500 - $4500

This is a great high action bank depicting a scene from the Spanish-American War of 1898. Place a coin in the slot in front of the ship's mast. Pull the hammer back on the cannon and insert a wooden shell. Release the lever and the shell hits the mast, knocking it over. The US & Spain Bank illustrates that Americas military prowess was greater than Spain's naval power.

Lot 113
Tommy Bank

John Harper Ltd.
Willenhall, England - 1914
Very Fine Condition
Estimate: $2500 - $3500

British military historians have long debated the precise origin of the appellation "Tommy" as it relates to the narrative of the average English soldier. Tommy Atkins, a brave and resolute foot soldier from the 32nd Regiment, heroically tried to hold his position during the Sepoy Rebellion in India in 1857.

Lot 114
Calamity Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - Early 1900's
Very Good Condition
(One Gear Replaced)
Estimate: $4000 - $5000

Wearing only nominal protective gear, many players sustained serious injuries. President Teddy Roosevelt viewed this situation as very dangerous. He planned to incorporate the abolition of collegiate football as part of his platform for re-election in 1904. It is a good thing that his political advisors talked him out of it. This bank depicts Harvard players tacking a Yale player.

Lot 115
Circus Bank

Shepard Hardware Company
Buffalo, NY - Late 1880's
Very Fine Condition
Original Cart and Trap
Estimate: $4000 - $5000

To operate the Circus Bank, place a penny atop the small pedestal at the back of the bank. Then turn the crank, which will cause the clown and his cart to make a pass around the circus ring. The horse appears to gallop three times up and down during this rotation. As the clown approaches the penny, he raises his left hand and knocks the coin into the bank. The cart's shafts with some repaint.

Lot 116
Girl Skipping Rope

J. & E. Stevens Company
Cromwell, CT - 1890's
Very Fine Overall Condition
Estimate: $10,000 - $15,000

This iconic late 19th century plaything has been featured as the logo for the Mechanical Bank Collectors of America for more than 50 years. She skips 12 times.

Lot 117

 Philadelphia, PA - 1882
 Very Good Condition
 Estimate: $1500 - $2000

Lot 118
Boy on Trapeze
 a.k.a. French's Automatic Savings
 Bank

J. Barton Smith Company
 Pennsylvania - Late 1880's
 Excellent Plus Condition
 Estimate: $1500 - $2000

This bank deploys concepts of physics to execute its design. If adjusted properly, the weight of different sized coins causes the trapeze artist to make a different number of revolutions.

Lot 119
English Clown Bust

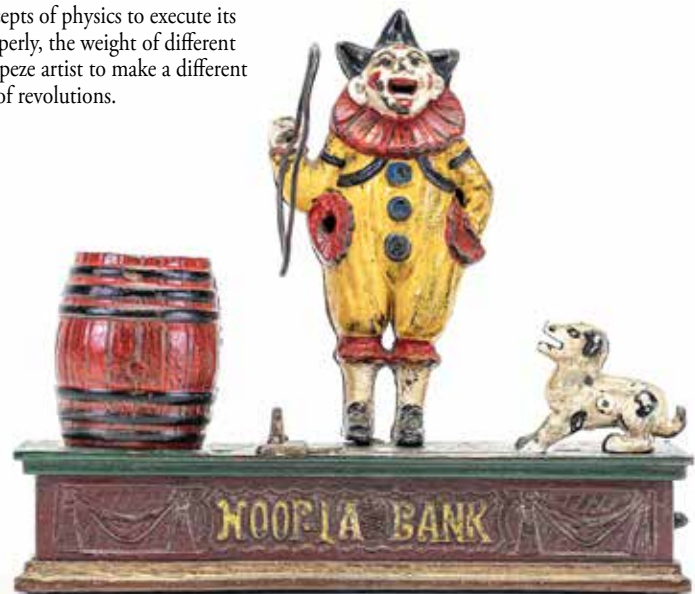

Made by Chamberlain & Hill
 Walsall, England - Mid 1920's
 Very Fine Condition
 Estimate: $2500 - $3500

With his vibrant ruffled collar and pompom stocking cap, this odd-looking clown is an exceedingly scarce bank.

Lot 120
Humpty Dumpty

Shepard Hardware Company
 Buffalo, NY - 1890's
 Very Fine Condition
 Estimate: $550 - $750

Lot 121
Hoop-La Bank

John Harper Ltd.
 Willenhall, England - 1900
 Excellent Plus Condition
 Figure Shellacked
 Estimate: $1250 - $1750

This English version of the "Trick Dog" bank has the same dynamic action as its American counterpart. Place a coin in the dog's mouth. Press the lever and the dog jumps through the hoop and deposits it into the barrel.
